

RESOLUTION #2018-1
TOWN OF CAMPBELL

A RESOLUTION OF THE TOWN BOARD EXERCISING AN ADVISORY REFERENDUM OPTION TO PURCHASE A REPLACEMENT FIRE TRUCK

WHEREAS, the Town of Campbell Fire Department is currently seeking the replacement of a 36 year old pumper truck; and,

WHEREAS, to uphold the responsibility of the Town of Campbell to provide fire protection for public safety; and,

WHEREAS, to maintain the current level of service provided to the Town as an ISO Class 3 rating, including maintaining reduced insurance rates for Town residents; and,

WHEREAS, to address an increasing cost of maintenance on an aged pumper truck that is beyond the national standard service life of 20 years, has an open cab that is not compliant with national safety standards due to firefighter ejection risks, is beyond serviceable repair; and,

WHEREAS, to uphold the mutual aid agreements with surrounding municipalities that require equipment to meet standards of condition and safety; and,

WHEREAS, to provide reliable and safe equipment for the volunteer firefighters on the Town of Campbell Fire Department; and,

WHEREAS, the Town of Campbell wishes to exercise an advisory referendum option to purchase a replacement fire truck for the Campbell Fire Department.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Town Board of the Town of Campbell directs the Town Clerk to place the question set forth below on the April 3, 2018 ballot as an advisory referendum:

“Shall the Town Board of the Town of Campbell be allowed to spend up to $500,000 plus interest or use a combination of borrowing and reserve funds to purchase a replacement Pumper Truck for the Fire Department?”

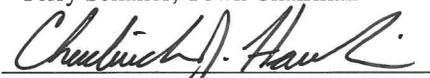

- a. Yes
- b. No

This Resolution shall be effective upon posting as required by Sec. 60.80 of the Wis. Stats.

Adopted this 9th day of January, 2018
